Four Favorites Are Beaten at Saratoga Track.

TROY STAKES GO TO FRIZETTE

Keene's Two-year-old an Easy Winner, with Magazine Second-Bat Masterson, Second Choice in the Handicap, Lands Race-Fort Johnson Captures Final Event.

Saratoga, Aug. 16.-Four favorites were eaten here to-day, and the books were hearly all good winners on the day. James R. Keene's Frizette, who went ack in the betting from 2 to 4, won the Troy Selling Stakes for two-year-olds, five and one-half furlongs. Miller lost no time in taking her to the front, and brought her home two lengths in front of R. F. Carman's Magazine, backed from 5 to 16 to 5. E. R. Bradley's Black Mary, 30 to 1, closed with a rush, and was third, beaten a head. Sam Emery's Master Robert, 2 to 1, favorite, was hadly beaten. The time was 1:06 3-5.

In addition to handling Frizette, Miller rode two other winners. He had the leg up on Bat Masterson, 18 to 5, second choice, who won the handicap for three year-olds, six furlongs, in a hard drive, by a half a length, from Jack Atkin, 7 to favorite, who tired near the end after making the pace. Berwyck, 15 to 1, had no trouble in taking third place. The time was 1:11 4-5.

Miller also rode John Sanford's Fort Johnson to victory in the sixth event, for maiden two-year-olds, five and one-half Richm furlongs. Fort Johnson was coupled with Adriache, a hot first choice, at 6 to 5. Miller made all the running with him, W. L. Pct. 48 58 153 and took the race by a length and a half 46 59 438 from Woolspun, 20 to 1, who beat Baroda, 32 66 .327 12 to 1, by a length. J. E.
